Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yes criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who sinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weaknesses, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a family, is often the cause of weakness, derangements and debility which are aggravated by the many household cares, and the hard, and never-ending work which the mother is called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce, the maker of that world-famed remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses and ills—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—says that one of the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class of maladies is the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife can not get the needed rest from her many household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, to meet with those in which his treatment fails by reason of the patient's inability to abstain from hard work long enough to be cured. With those suffering from prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion of the uterus or other displacement of the womanly organs, it is very necessary that, in addition to taking his "Favorite Prescription" they abstain from being very much, or for long periods, on their feet. All heavy lifting or straining of any kind should also be avoided. As much out-door air as possible, with moderate, light exercise is also very important. Let the patient observe these rules and the "Favorite Prescription" will do the rest.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Tie-up Threatened.

Unless some satisfactory agreement is reached within the next five days between the managements of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway Company, the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company, the New York and Baltimore Transportation Company and the Philadelphia and Baltimore Steamboat Company (the Ericsson Line)and many of the captains and other officers of the big transportation lines who have demanded an increase in their wages, one of the most serious tie-ups of shipping ever known in Baltimore is threatened. Seventy masters and lower officers of the lines names, it was stated, tendered their resignations on Friday last, to take effect on Monday next, October 1, and it was said yesterday that other masters of vessels are ready to throw their fortunes with the men who have virtually issued their ultimatum to the big lines which control 90 per cent. of the shipping along the Light street piers in Baltimore.

Should the demands of the men be refused on Monday next their resignations, it is stated, will become effective.

About 35 steamers would be affected by the threatened tie-up and a paralysis along the Light street wharves second only to the great ice embargo of two winters ago.

The lines which would be affected are the Claiborne, or railway, division of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic; the Piankatank river route, the Choptank river route, the Wicomico route, the Nanticoke, the Pocomoke, the Potomac, and the Chester rivers.

Three Hugs Cost $825.

A big, good-natured-looking man, dressed in a white waistcoat, who described himself as W. W. Wheeler, of Boston, staying at the Hotel Wolcott, New York, took a walk on Broadway yesterday morning, which, while not very long, cost him $825. At Thirty-first street and Broadway he was astonished when a little woman embraced him in a most violent and clinging-fashion.

Mr. "Wheeler" induced the young woman to forego her caresses. Then he passed on to the next corner, where another young woman acted in a similar manner. At Thirty-fourth street a third did likewise. By that time he was lost in wonder at the affection of the three. He determined that he must be a most attractive man or the women would not have acted that way. He put his hand to his shirt front to give his $400 diamond stud a little appreciative pat and then discovered that it was gone. A great light began to break in on him and he felt quickly for his right hip pocket, in which he kept his wallet. The wallet was there, but a companion stone to the stud, also valued at $400, and $25 in cash had disappeared.

According to the hotel registere no such man as "Wheeler" was stopping there, but a man from Boston, who happened to be in the station house when the case came to the attention of the sergeant, said that "Wheeler" bore a striking resemblance to a very well-to-do shoe manufacturer who has a place in Lynn and another in Brockton.

Alleged Theft of an Island.

That the Dutch East Indian government has "lifted" Palmas Island, one of the Philippines, and has its ruler in charge of affairs, acting under the Dutch flag, is the allegation made to the State Department and the Bureau of Insular Affairs.

The State Department will take up the matter at once with the Dutch government and find out under what authority a Dutch representative pretends to govern the American island.

Palmas Island is situated sixty miles due east of the Sarangani Islands, and is well within the Philippine limits included in the transfer from Spain to the United States. It is a small, fertile, and highly cultivated island, the inhabitants speaking a dialect somewhat resembling the language of the Manobes, but presenting many of the characteristics of the Oceanic people.

In his report to the War Department, Gen. Wood says that Dutch ships have been making voyages to Palmas for the last fifteen years, and that apparently there has been a gradual assumption of authority over the people.

Active measures will be taken at once by the State Department to adjust the matter with the Dutch government.

Marines Deserting.

Marines have been deserting the barracks on Mare Island, Cal., at a rate which has made it necessary for Brigadier General G. E. Elliott, commanding the marine corps, to detail a second lieutenant and several experienced enlisted men as a squad, whose sole duty it is to search San Francisco for deserters from the Marine Corps

So great has been the demand for laborers in San Francisco that representatives of labor agencies have been visiting Mare Island and urging the marines to desert the service and engage in work at San Francisco, where able-bodied men are paid as high as $5 a day for wheeling brick and mortar and doing other work necessary to clear the city of debris.

Appeals by the Marine Corps to the San Francisco police were futile. The policemen refused to arrest marines who deserted the service and engaged in work in San Francisco. Finally the situation became so desperate that the commandant at Mare Island appealed to General Elliott for assistance, and he authorized the creation of the squad which is patrolling the city and picking up marine deserters.

French Catholics.

The projected statutes of the League of French Catholics, now being organized with the object of forming cultural associations to take over church property in defiance of the Pope's refusal to recognize the church and state separation law, specifically pledge faithfulness to the doctrine of the Roman Church, declaring that the members remain and intend to remain attached to the religion of their forefathers, believe in the dogmas taught by the Roman Catholic Church as defined by the ecumenical councils and the bulls of the Holy See and pledge themselves, when placed in possession of the church property in the parishes, to ask the bishop of the diocese to provide for carrying on public worship.

Minister of Public Worship Briand in Paris yesterday published a list of the associations to which church property thus far has been actually surrendered. It shows that two Catholic, one Jewish and 49 Protestant associations have complied with the requirements of the law.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 26, 1906.

THE FOLLOWING resolutions adopted under the direction of Charles F. Murphy at a meeting of the Tammany general committee on the 19th of last March are reproduced. They were in order at the time they were adopted and are more so now when the advocates of socialism are conducting a vigorous propaganda in every city in the country:

Every proposal that a municipality assume operation of all public utilities and reduce rates to persons using them, regardless of what the service may actually cost, is an attempt to force some men to bear the expenses of others, because where the outlay for operation exceeds earnings the deficit must be made up by taxation, and this we denounce as socialistic, and therefore hostile to justice and subversive of democratic government.

We denounce the socialism which seeks to make government the sole agent of production as nothing less than a proposal to re-establish the institution of tyranny and industrial slavery which perished before the advance of Christian civilization. For the very essence of despotism is to vest in the state absolute control of all industry, and therefore ownership of all its products; while the essence of democracy is to confirm in every man the right to dispose of his own labor and possess in peace everything produced by it. We hd it to be self-evident that if government assume the whole control of production it would be its right and its duty to compel men to work for its enrichment, as it is its right and its duty now to compel all men to fight for its defense, and enforced labor, whether it be enforced by government or by individuals, is servitude.

Realizing every socialistic proposal, however cunningly disguised under sonorous but misleading phrases, to be a step leading inevitably toward the re-establishment of despotism in government and servitude in labor, the democratic party must always be vigilant in unmasking it and inflexible in opposing it.

Socialistic emissaries appear on prominent street corners in Alexandria weekly and attempt to interest the conservative people of this city in their peculiar creed. Their labors, so far, have born no visible fruit. The above facts, so succinctly stated, should be read and weighed well, as they are absolutely unanswerable.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has been called upon to cause investigation to determine whether a "conspiracy in restraint of trade" was entered into by the sugar trust when it obtained domination over the affairs of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refinery, a Segal promotion, which, because of control of the trust, has never turned a wheel. George H. Earle, receiver of the Real Estate Trust Company, announced yesterday in Philadelphia that he had written to the President laying before him the astounding facts in this case, and requesting that he act. That the entire case will be referred by the President to the Department of Justice is assured. But in his statement Receiver Earle makes it plain that whatever action may be taken by the President, he feels it his duty, having accepted the trust reposed in him when the Real Estate Trust came into his hands as receiver, to proceed independently of any governmental assistance.

THE RICHMOND police board passed a resolution at its last meeting requesting the City Council to pass an ordinance prohibiting minors in pool rooms. The action was taken on the evidence of the police and records of the police court as to the number of small forgeries and "nippings" from employers, as well as theft, which were traceable to boys who frequented poolrooms. Incidents are occurring almost every day which show that the action of the Richmond police board is well taken. Many youths have started on the down road by visiting poolrooms, and the police of all cities should be empowered to keep youngsters out of the paths of temptation.

DESPITE the civil service laws prohibiting the soliciting of campaign funds from government employes, the republicans have opened a bureau in Washington. The intimation is given that 5 per cent of the salary received from every office holder would be about fair. But what are civil service or any other rules to the republicans when they are in control?

THE PHILADELPHIA RECORD says: The race war in Atlanta affords the country a foretaste of Cuban annexation. But what is such a trifle to the sugar trust and other interests that gaze with speculative eyes upon the plantations of Cuba?

FROM THE stalwart republican point of view the fine crops are due to the protective tariff and the low price of wheat to the determination of the democrats to revise the sacred schedules that protect the trusts.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 26.

The invasion of Cuba by the army as well as the naval forces is now practically assured.

Orders were prepared by the War Department last night covering all possible details for the movement of troops. Special arrangements were made this morning with the telegraph companies for the quick handling of messages to the various organizations selected for Cuban service. As soon as President Roosevelt gives the word, the orders will be flashed to commanding officers, and in less than an hour's time 6,000 soldiers will be en route to the chosen points of embarkation, fully equipped for prolonged service in the island.

What is known in military parlance as "precautionary orders" were sent out some days ago for the troops to be prepared for instant departure. Under these orders all leaves of officers and men from their posts have been revoked, and thorough preparation has been made to get under way forthwith upon receipt of the department's "flash" to move.

The points of embarkation have not yet been announced by the department, but it is regarded as practically certain that the bulk of the troops will sail from New York and Norfolk. Some will go from southern ports. The movement from the various points will be so timed as to land the first corps in Havana simultaneously, or nearly so.

Coincidental with the embarkation of troops, supplies of all kinds, clothing, rations, ammunition, horses and mules, will be taken aboard the vessels from the army depots where they have been accumulated in large quantities in the past two weeks.

No hint has yet been given as to the particular regiments assigned for Cuban duty. It is the intention of the department to keep this feature secret until the positive orders to move shall have been issued. From the fact that the transport Sumner, now in New York, was placed in commission last night, it is assumed that her quota of troops will be drawn from the forts in the neighborhood of that city.

This being the only available transport on the Atlantic coast, the remainder of the Cuban army of occupation will have to be sent on merchant vessels. These vessels have been selected and are being held in readiness for charter by the department. It is understood that the plan to use the small harbor vessels owned by the army has been abandoned and that only large ships will be employed

Following the departure of the first expedition, preparations will be set on foot immediately for the dispatch of a second should conditions seem to warrant it.

Although Brigadier General Funston, who has now reached the Cuban capital, has been chosen for immediate command of the troops in Cuba, it is possible that in the event of sending a second expedition Brigadier General J. Franklin Bell, Chief of Staff, will supersede him.

In accordance with the Navy Department's orders of yesterday (as exclusively detailed in these dispatches), 1,500 marines and 3,000 sailors will be on their way by tomorrow morning on battleships and cruisers of the North Atlantic fleet, to re-enforce those already at Havana, so that by Sunday there will be in the harbor six battleships and six cruisers, capable of landing a force of 10,000 men.

Orders were received by the War Department today from the President at Oyster Bay to have the army ready to go to Cuba on the shortest notice.

It will take seven days from the time actual orders are received by the War Department to send an army to Cuba before the troops, who are now in readiness for active duty, can be embarked from this country for the soil of Cuba. This delay, which is causing the officials of the War Department much concern, is entirely due to lack of adequate transportation facilities.

The positive statement was made by authority at the War Department this morning that armed intervention in Cuba would mean that every soldier of the regular army now stationed in the United States would have to be used. In other words, the War Department is proposing to send an army of not less than 40,000 men to Cuba.

Brigadier General Frederick Funston will not, as has been generally understood, be in supreme command of the army of occupation in Cuba. He will be one of the general officers sent there, but an officer of higher rank,—a major general—would certainly be in chief command.

Col. Littleton W. T. Waller, who is to command the entire force of marines detailed for duty in Cuba, will leave Norfolk, Va., this afternoon for Havana. He is under hurry orders.

Colonel Isaac R. Hill, for thirty five years connected with the House of Representatives in some official capacity, died at his apartments in this city yesterday, from a complication of kidney and heart trouble. Colonel Hill has been known to every member of Congress for a generation as "Ike Hill, of Ohio." Away back in the 70's he came to Washington as doorkeeper in the House. Each succeeding congressman from the old Newark district found it the part of wisdom to keep in touch with Hill, and to heed his homely admonitions as coming from a father. Gradually Hill became a fixture in the House. No matter which party was in power he remained on the pay roll. Perhaps no man with a life-long connection with the democratic leaders of the country enjoyed a greater popularity. He served many times as sergeant-at-arms at national democratic conventions, in which position he was regarded as invaluable because of his wide acquaintance with public men and newspaper correspondents. He knew practically every man who had had a public career or who had been a frequenter of political gatherings. Col. Hill was a picturesque character among democrats for a generation and enjoyed a rare reputation as a narrator of good stories. As a political prognosticator he had an envisible reputation. He always spoke of the republicans as the "abolitionists," but his quaint humor that caused him to delight in remarks about the proceedings of Congress and members was never employed in any offensive manner. Soon after his return from Ohio after the last presidential election the correspondent of the Gazette greeted him with, "Hello, Colonel, what happened in Ohio?" "And everywhere else," quickly responded the colonel. He then gave his explanation of the defeat of the democratic party as follows; "Well, you see it was this way. The Pope beat us and the friar lands had much to do with it. You see the Catholics heretofore, as a rule, had been with us, while the Methodists in the north, east and west were against us. But the present Pope is a new fellow and he didn't know, and, by George, he joined the republicans." The colonel then, laughingly, added: "You know that nothing in this country can beat a combination between the Catholics and the Methodists."

The Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered a hearing in this city October 10 on the question of issuing export and importrates on less than 30 days notice.

The Werres & Hinton Silk Dye Works of Petersburg, Va. has complained to the Interstate Commerce Commission of unreasonable rates charged them by the Adams, United States, and Southern Express Companies.

Chief Justice Calhoun this morning denied the writ of habeas corpus brought in behalf of H. F. Atherton, who is charged in a warrant issued in Springfield, Mass., with larceny of $80. An appeal was taken to the Court of Appeals and pending the decision of the case, Atherton was admitted to $1,000 bail.

News of the Day.

Reports received from various places say that many slight earthquake shocks have been experienced. No loss of life is reported.

After a chase lasting four months and leading through the New England and many of the Middle States, Eleanor Lengyel, a handsome 21-years-old girl from Bridgeport, Conn., finally captured her recreant sweetheart, Joseph Petro, at Oil City, Pa., yesterday and compelled him to marry her.

The known dead in connection with the riots at Atlanta, Ga., since last Saturday night number one white man and eighteen negroes. To this number might be added the name of Mrs. Robert P. Thompson, an estimable white woman, who dropped dead Monday evening as two negroes were shot and beaten in her sight.

Twenty-five students of the Washington, Pa., Seminary, the most fashionable girls' school in western Pennsylvania, were sent to their homes yesterday by Miss Christina Thompson, principal. The fair students on Monday attended the annual cane rush of the Washington and Jefferson College freshmen and sophomores, although strictly forbidden to do so. They came back very much the worse for the rough demonstrations of their admirers.

An alleged plot to destroy the Nickel Plate trestle in Cleveland, Ohio, was reported yesterday. An infernal machine containing 22 sticks of dynamite equipped with four dry batteries, fuses and a clock set for 3 a. m., was found by a night watchman early yesterday and turned over to railroad officials, who later gave it to the police. It is alleged the dynamite was thrown from the platform of a Nickel Plated passenger train about 2 a. m., but failed to explode. That the repeated concussions did not explode the bomb is ascribed to the fact that it was heavily wrapped in rags. This is the second alleged attempt to destroy the trestle.

Virginia News.

Rev. and Mrs. Fleet H. James, of Round Hill, announce the marriage Sunday evening of their daughter Miss Alice Gertrude James, to Clarence L. Robey, of the Purcellville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, of Berryville, announce the recent marriage of their daughter, Miss Lillian Johnson, to Mr. Walter Rhodes, of North Fork, Loudoun county.

Austin Johnson, the negro once convicted of criminal assault upon Ruth Pinchbeck, a 10-year-old white girl, will be given a second trial before a jury in Henrico Circuit Court next week.

Mr. James W. Stephenson, for many years one of the best known farmers of Frederick county, died Monday night at "Woodside," the home of his daughter, Mrs. Luther A. Huyett, near Rest, after an illness incident to old age, in his eighty-seventh year.

About eighty delegates, representing the republicans of the First district, met in convention at Hampton yesterday and nominated R. S. Bristow, postmaster of Urbana, Middlesex county, to oppose W. A. Jones, the democratic candidate for re-election to Congress.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Helen Marshall Ferguson, daughter of the late Rev. Sydnor Ferguson, and Mr. William Coleman, of Appomattox. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. James W. Foley of Berryville, in November.

Governor Swanson has received a petition signed by prominent residents of Westmoreland county, asking for commutation of the sentence of Lilian Young, a negro, convicted of criminal assault on his cousin, to life imprisonment. Young is sentenced to die on the gallows for his crime on October 19.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant this week, to citizens of this State, of the following patents: James W. Gardner, of Jarratt, for running gear; Giles E. Phillips, of Sangerville, for wire-stretcher; Joseph A. Reams, of west Norfolk, assignor of one-half to T. K. Parrish, of Richmond, for receptacle-clamp; Jerome Swart, of Palmer, for fish-trap and William Yeatts, of Meadville, for track-crossing.

INTERVENTION IN CUBA.

President Palma and his associates yesterday rejected the peace proposals.

It was then announced that President Palma, Vice President Capote and the Moderate senators and resentatives would resign.

President Roosevelt sent Palma a cablegram urging him to accept the peace proposals.

The U. S. government is preparing to land an army of occupation, consisting of 2,700 marines, 5,000 sailors and 6,000 soldiers.

All the naval stations are being denuded of marines, and battleships of the North Atlantic squadron are being hurried off to Cuba.

Secretary Taft, in a report to President Roosevelt, says:

"The situation seems to demand the use of force. We do not want to intervene, but the conditions may necessitate it. The elections were rotten; I have never known a more disgusting situation. We are thoroughly disgusted with the petty method of the government leaders. The insurgent commanders have lost control of their forces, which are now always bands. President Palma has rejected terms of peace which were honorable to him, though in the form of a compromise with his opponents. We trust the American people will give us credit for doing everything possible to effect a settlement without resort to force."

While it was denied at the executive office in Oyster Bay last night that all hope of a peaceful settlement of affairs in Cuba had been abandoned, it was admitted that the situation was very grave, indeed, and that every effort was being made to have the transportation facilities ready so that troops might be hurried to Cuba at a moment's notice. The transport Sumner, now lying at Norfolk, was placed in commission yesterday and negotiations have been opened with firms in Baltimore and elsewhere for the chartering of merchant vessels to carry troops.

BAILEY ANSWERS CRITICS.

A statement made public in Dallas last night by Senator Joseph W. Bailey in reply to recent criticisms of him and his record is, in part, as follows:

"The democrats of Texas have not forgotten that exactly this same kind of a fight was made on me when I was first elected to the Senate six years ago. After I had won the senatorship in a fair contest before the people a coterie of dissatisfied politicians made a desperate attempt to defeat my election by the legislature. The present agitation was largely inaugurated by the same men, with some outside assistance, and is predicted upon exactly the same transactions. My candidacy for re-election to the Senate was submitted to a direct ballot by the democratic party of Texas and I received within 2,000 votes of the number cast for four of the candidates for governor.

"The first step in this campaign of malevolence and detraction was to have a purported interview with the Hon. Roger Sullivan, of Illinois, assailing me me sent broadcast over the country. Mr. Sullivan promptly denounced that interview as a falsehood. The next step was to circlate the falsehood that the Tennessee Railroad properties, for which I am the attorney, belong to the Standard Oil Company. Some of the men who are circulating that story know, and all of them could have learned with very little inquiry, that the Standard Oil Company has no interest in or connection with these properties, and that they were owned by H. C. Pierce, J. C. Van Blarcom, W. H. Thompson and other business men of St. Louis.

"The municipality of Nashville, in order to provide its people with additional and competing railroad facilties, had subscribed for $1,000,000 of the stock of the railroad.

"The railroad had passed through one receivership and was on the verge of an other when I was called into the case. I accepted the employment and performed exactly the same kind of service that would have been expected of any other reputable lawyer. The statement that I put thirteen million dollars worth of securities in my pocket to do with them as I pleased is little less than ridiculous. Every dollar's worth of bonds of that railroad company was pleged for its indebtedness, and it was my task to prevent those who held them from enforcing their liens and sacrificing the securities at a forced sale. This I succeeded in doing this is a matter of great satisfaction to me, as it was to my clients. I not only saved my clients a large sum, but I also managed to give the city of Nashville three important competing railroad systems where before it had suffered in the grasp of one.

"The third step in the process was to pretend that the testimony given by Mr. Pierce disclosed a secret employment of me in connection with those properties.

"There never was the least attempt to conceal my attorneyship for those properties, nor was there the least reason why it should be concealed. The objection to my employment as the attorney of those properties must proceed upon the theory that a man in public office has no right to pursue any private business, and such a doctrine would confine the public life of this country only to rich men or rascals.

"If I had found that time and strength would not permit me to serve as a Senator and to practice law at the same time I would have abandoned the law, because I have always believed that the public service holds the highest claim upon every man who undertakes it. Or if I had found that there was any conflict between my duty to my clients and my duty to my constituents I would have declined all employment as a lawyer.

"The Congressional Record will show that I have been constant in my attendance during my 15 years in Congress as any man who has served with me. Certainly that establishes that I have not neglected public duties in the pursuit of private business. The Congressional Record will also show that I have spoken and voted on every important question, and my most malignant enemy cannot point to a single speech or vote in the interests of my clients and against those of my constituents".

A Lily White Nominee.

George A. Hanson was nominated yesterday by the republicans of the Third Congressional district of Virginia as a candidate for Congress in opposition to Congressman John Lamb, democrat. The convention was held in Manchester. Only seven colored men were in attendance.

Peter B. Shorts, colored, opposed the nomination of any candidate at this time, thereby precipitating a lively scene, in the course of which members of the negro race were bidden by the white republicans "to take a back seat and stay there." Shorts said that the effort to make the republican party "lily white" had been made, and that it was for that reason he was opposed to making the nomination.

Mr. Hanson stepped quickly to the front of the stage, his eye flashing and his face showing evident excitement.

"The developments of the last few minutes demand some expression from me, he said. "If the negro is here to exalt himself, he is not wanted; if they are here as republicans, they are wanted.

"The time has come for the negroes as a party or as leaders to take a back seat. They have only 10,000 votes in the State; can they hope to do anything? As leaders they could do nothing. I do not want any man's vote by reason of his color. I shall not ask you to vote for me with the idea that I think I can win, for I do not."

Mr. Hanson's speech evoked frequent applause from the whites, but the negroes shook their heads. He declared the white people would continue to rule the State, but that for 50 years no statesman had come from Virginia simply because she had been on the wrong side. Emmet Kinney, a negro delegate, loudly proclaimed that he was from Hanover, the home of Henry Clay, and for 40 years had fought the democratic party, but now he had been kicked out, and hereafter when conventions meet and polls are opened he would be found hunting and fishing.

Rescue of a Merchant.

A prominent merchant of Shongo, N. Y., J. A. Johnson, says: "Several years ago I contracted a cough which grew worse, until I was hardly able to move around. I coughed constantly and nothing relieved my terrible suffering until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. Before I had taken half a bottle my cough was much better, and in a short time I was entirely cured. I surely believe it saved my life. It will always be my family remedy for colds." Fully guaranteed; 50c and $1.00 at E. G. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Trial bottle free.

ANARCHY IN CUBA.

Havana Sept. 26.—There is urgent need for thousands of United States soldiers and marines in Cuba. Anarchy reigns throughout the interior and looting of estates, especially of foreigners, is reported in many sections.

Announcement of the determination of the government to abdicate with a view of bringing about American intervention has caused an outbreak of disorder and it is believed that the worst is still to come.

For the moment the distressing political situation is almost forgotten in the fresh troubles which have arisen from the acts of marauding bands which are operating in unprotected parts of the country.

During the last fortnight the government has made no pretense of maintaining authority in the provinces. This has given great opportunity for rascals, themselves insurrents, to indulge in petty thieving. With the announcement that the government was tottering to its end, anarchy has broken out openly in many sections.

The insurgent armies are made up in a great measure of soldiers of fortune and loafers, who welcomed the opportunity to enlist in the anti-government cause, because it insured them a living without the necessity of working. Prospects of intervention by the United States are not encouraging to such men, as they see in it a restoration of order and the necessary of resuming work for a living.

Desertions from the insurgent army of adventurers and easy livers have been frequent, and numerous depredations have been committed by them.

With the sudden turn affairs have taken by the determination of the government to abdicate, it is feared that hundreds of the insurgents will turn bandits, and try to support themselves off the farmers and planters. Discipline in the rebel armies has been poor at the best, and their leaders are now almost helpless to hold their men in order.

Secretary Taft has not entirely abandoned hope that he may be able to find a way out of the difficulty ahead of him, but he is about the only one who thinks there is any remedy but intervention.

It is understood that Mr. Taft hopes to be able to induce the moderates in Congress, when that body assembles on Friday, to receive the resignation of Palma, Capote, and other government authorities, not to resign themselves, but to remain in office and retain the form of a government until a new election can be called.

Havana, Sept. 26.—The resignations of all members of the Cuban cabinet were presented to President Palma, today. He has accepted them, but they will remain in office until after Palma's own resignation has been presented to Congress.

Intervention is expected by every one here and the only question debated is how soon marines and soldiers will arrive.

Boston, Sept. 26.—Not since the Spanish war have the government navy yards and stations on the New England coast exhibited such feverish activity. The battleship Rhode Island and auxiliary cruise Prairie were coaled at Charlestown last night by searchlight in preparation for departure for Havana on Friday morning. The Prairie will take detachments of marines from Portsmouth, N. H., and Newport, R. I. Last night orders arrived directing almost all the marines left at the Charlestown yard to proceed to Norfolk, Va., at once. The new giant battleship Georgia is being rushed to completion. The cruiser Yankee, which was to have been placed out of commission at Portsmouth Monday, is being hurriedly prepared and is expected to leave Friday. At Provincetown orders were received yesterday evening directing the battleships Kentucky and Indiana to leave at once for Cuba, taking 850 marines.

Portsmouth, Va., Sept. 26—According to present arrangements, the battleship Texas, which is being rushed into commisson at the Portsmouth navy yard, will get away for Cuba next Sunday morning.

Will Nominate Hearst.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The 450 delegates representing the democratic party of the State assemble today to nominate William Randolph Hearst for governor.

The bosses who are supporting Hearst do not want him. If at any time in the past few days it has been possible to have concentrated upon any other man, and at the same time not to have invited disaster at the hands of a third party movement, they would have thrown Hearst overboard.

However, they have felt it necessary to jettison such things as personal preferences and old time party ideas.

Hearst men assert that their movement is a protest against financial wrongs and economic evils, but they deny that they revolutionists in the sense attributed to them by their enemies. Meanwhile the bosses and the delegates are hastening to register by their votes today the rising tide of a great radical movement in America.

The convention was called to order at 11:05 and immediately adjourned until 2:30 this afternoon. The committee on contested seats did not have their report ready; hence the adjournment.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 26.—William Travers Jerome today made the following public declaration:

"There is no use in we democrats who believe that the party has been sold and betrayed, in holding a rump convention. It would only weaken the opposition to Hearst. If the republicans will nominate a decent man at Saratoga, I will stump the State for him."

Accident to a Trolley Car.

Philadelphia, Sept. 26.—A trolley car, carrying sand in violation of the the city ordinances, and with a crew of six men, plunged through the Columbia avenue bridge, over the New York division of the Pennsylvania Railroad at 31st street this morning. Tee six men were severely injured, one so seriously that he may die. The bridge was an old one and could not stand the strain of the weight of the heavy load. When the bridge collapsed the car turned completely over, burying the men in the debris. They were rescued by fellow workmen. That none was killed is considered remarkable.

A Narrow Escape.

In these days of rush and hurry courtesy is often forgotten, in the mad, pell mell rush of our little life things are done to offend that we rather remained undone. A hastily eaten meal and its resultant headache may cause a social or financial loss. The wise man or woman is the one who relieves little ills of this sort by a little dose of Kodal For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King st.

Hughes to be the Nominee.

Saratoga, New York, Sept 26.—Lieutenant Governor M. Linn Bruce has withdrawn from the race, and it is practically certain the name of Charles E. Hughes will be the only one presented for Governor to the convention today. All opposition to Hughes has completely ceased. Lieutenant Governor Bruce told Chairman Parsons he would second Hughes' nomination. No definite decision has been reached about the nominee for Lieutenant Governor.

Hughes' friends say they have enough voters to nominate him on the first ballot. Conferences between the leaders of the various factions lasting until daylight today failed to clear the situation. Herbert Parsons, of the New York county delegation, told the conferees that Hughes' name would be presented positively. Parsons had heard from Oyster Bay and it was talked among the delegates that President Roosevelt had commenced swinging the big stick.

The republican ticket will be Hughes for Governor and W. Linn Bruce for Lieutenant Governor.

Hughes was nominated by a unanimous vote when the convention met. Bruce was nominated for Lieutenant Governor. Jerome upon hearing of Hughes' nomination said: "Well, we can all support him."

The remainder of the ticket is as follows: John F. O'Brien, Secretary of State; Merton E. Lewis, Comptroller; John C. Wallenmier, Treasurer; Julius M. Mayer, Attorney General; Henry C. Van Alstyne, State Engineer.

Mr. Hughes telegraphed his acceptance of the nomination to Senator Page.

The platform endorses President Roosevelt and the tariff, favors the eight hour law, condemns the disfranchising of voters in southern States and mob barbarities, and expresses sympathy with the Jews in Russia and Poland.

Atlanta Quiet.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 26.—Rioting has ceased and at noon the city authorities issued a statement saying they anticipate no further trouble. The military have been withdrawn from the streets, but the soldiers will be called to give assurance that order will be maintained. At Brownsville the postoffice in the negro settlement which was the scene of battle Monday night, has been closed by Postmaster Blodgett following the arrest of the negro postmaster of the suburb who was found carrying arms.

Citizens have started a relief fund to bury those killed in the riots and to care for the victims of the riots and all wounded persons. The fund quickly reached $5,000 and the city will make an equal appropriation.

John Andrews, a negro, was brought to the police station today charged with striking Mrs. Annie Coner on the head and making her unconscious in an attempt to steal her pocket book. The woman is too badly injured today to inspect the negro to identify him.

Nearly all school children are back at their desks to lay.

Hundreds of parents escorted their children to their school, and will take them home this evening to prevent stoning by negroes as occurred yesterday.

Stormy Scenes in Crete.

Athens, Greece, Sept. 26.—Serious fighting occurred between insurgents and the international troops stationed in Crete today on the occasion of the retirement of Prince George of Greece as high commissioner of the powers in the island. It was necessary to land sailors with machine guns from the British cruiser Barham in Canea before order was restored temporarily. Fears are entertained that a recrudescence of the revolution in Crete will follow the withdrawal of Prince George. Revolutionists who oppose his departure forcibly tried to detain Prince George on the island. The insurgents broke through the lines of international troops, marched into the capital, and surrounded the palace. Serious trouble ensued between the troops and the insurgents. Finally at the request of the retiring commissioner the insurgents withdrew. Order is now being maintained by the soldiers and sailors with the machine guns.

M. Zaimus, former Premier of Greece, has been announced as the successor of Prince George.

Panic in a School.

Ney York, Sept. 26.—A panic was caused today, when an old nag, driven crazy with fright, dashed into the Chiesa Madonna di Loretto, a school in Elizabeth street. Some one raised the cry of fire and 800 students, mostly Italian children rushed out in a panic. Fortunately all escaped unhurt.

The horse was left standing in the street preparatory to being hitched to a wagon. He ate some greens in a near by garbage barrel. When he tried to raise his head the barrel came along settling over his shoulders. In a fight he ran across the street and into the school. Italian mothers for blocks around rushed to the school an such numbers it was necessiary to dismiss the session to restore quiet.

A Fling at American Insurance.

Vienna, Austria, Sept. 26.—A fling was taken at American insurance companies in the Reisharath, or Austrian Parliament, today, when the government was interpellated as to what is being done to insure the protection of Austrian policy holders in the United States companies. The questioning of the government was the outcome of the recent scandals in American companies developed by the New York insurance investigation.

The Massachusetts Election.

Boston, Sept. 26.—Returns from the democratic primary election held here yesterday give District Attorney Moran all but 31 of the delegates to the convention which he hopes will nominate him for governor. The district attorney also shows good majorities in most of the large cities of the State, which seem to assure him success in the convention. The only contest at the republican primaries was between Foss and Draper, both seeking second place on the State ticket. Foss was overwhelmingly defeated.

Philip Edelin, fourteen years old, of Washington, D. C., and a son of Commander Gilmore, of the United States navy, who is about the same age, are the principals in a mysterious shooting affray which occurred in Winchester late yesterday evening, and which may cost Edelin his life. The boys were school mates, and the shooting is said to have been accidental.

Col. Alexander Campbell, son of the founder of Bethany College, died at Bethany, W. Va., today. He was prominent in the democratic politics.

Shot While Hazing.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 26.—There is much excitement over a probably fatal shooting affair between students of the State University at Chapel Hill last night. Bernard O'Neil, of Wilmington, was shot in the groin and stomach by J. J. Hatch, from Mount Olive. O'Neil is in the college hospital in a precarious condition, and Hatch is under arrest.

Hatch claims he was attacked, probably in an attempt to haze him, by O'Neil, and three other sophomores and senior students, whereupon he used his pistol. On the advice of President Venable, Hatch surrendered to the civil authorities.

Another Bomb Exploded.

Helsingfors, Finland, Sept. 26.—An attempt was made today to kill the public prosecutor, who has been active in trying men accused of participating in the Sveaborg mutiny, by exploding a bomb in front of his house. Fortunately the prosecutor was not in the dwelling when the bomb exploded. The house was wrecked and three persons injured.

Stensland Sentenced.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Paul O Stensland, former President of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, reached Chicago today. He pleaded guilty in court this afternoon upon charges growing out of the wrecking of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, and was given on one count an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary with a maximum term of ten years. On another count, that of uttering forged checks, he was fined $120. New disclosures of the greatest importance were made by Stensland to Assistant States Attorney Olsen. The banker broke down and wept several times during the cross examination. It is said Stensland laid the origin of the alleged forgeries of notes to an Italian clerk in the bank and that at the time they aggregated $300,000.

Because he lost $400 in the Milwaukee Avenue State bank crash, Sylvester Katusticzynski committed suicide today by hanging himself with a harness strap in the barn of his employer.

Holds Baby as Security.

Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 26.—Failing to obtain several months' back rent in any other manner, Jacob Temerer, who owns a tenement at Midvale, yesterday afternoon seized the two-year-old baby of Mrs. Michael Koch and ran away with it. He went to the house with a constable, but the little furniture there was not one-tenth the value of the rent due—$50. "I'll take your baby then," he cried, and, seizing the infant, ran out. The constable advised Mrs. Koch to have him arrested for kidnapping, but she was afraid of the law's delays, and sped in pursuit. When she overtook Temerer she paid him $25, and promised the other if he gave the child back, and he then let her take it.

Girl Who Eloped With Coachman Will Wed Again.

Montclair, N. J., Sept. 26.—Cordelia Dearborn, heiress, who eloped and became the bride of Henry Dill, her mother's coachman, a year ago, will be married again today. This time the bridegroom will be James Holland, of New Hampshire, a man of the same station in life as Miss Dearborn. The young woman assumed her maiden name after her separation from the coachman. Today's ceremony will take place in the home of Miss Dearborn's mother. It will be a modest affair. Miss Dearborn's father, Dr. Henry Dearborn, died several years ago and left her $100,000.

The Sultan's Condition.

Geneva, Sept. 26.—Sultan Abdul Hamid II. of Turkey has not more than six months to live. This is the report received by leaders of the young Turkish party here from confidential agents in Constantinople. Professor Bergmann, the German specialist, who was called recently to examine the Sultan, warned Abdul Hamid that an operation for the cancer from which he is reported to be suffering was imperative if he wished to live. The Sultan, who is mortally afraid of an operation, replied that he would take the risk.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 26.—The stock market throughout the first hour ruled quiet and generally firm, with little business in any part of the room, and traders simply backing and filling, first selling and then buying many of the active stocks, the talk most of it being about the political situation. London bought about 10,000 shares here, mostly Southern Pacific.

W. C. T. U.

Last night was known as "welcome and county jubilee night" at the W. C. T. U. convention now in session at the First Baptist Church. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and the music was by the Chapter of Praise of that church. Mayor F. J. Pafi welcomed the delegates on behalf of the city, State Senator Lewis H. Machen on behalf of the professions, Rev. P. P. Phillips on behalf of the churches, Mrs. Amy C. Weech on behalf of the Alexandria and Fairfax county Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett on behalf of the local Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The responses were by Mrs. Mary Strickland, of Roanoke county; Mrs. J. E Lincoln, of Rockingham county, and Mrs. Ada Hough, of Norfolk county.

All of the addresses were interesting and instructive and were attentively listened to by the large congregation present. After music there were minute talks by the county presidents whose counties have made net gains of ten members, which concluded the night's session.

The executive committee met again this morning for an hour's session at which considerable business was transacted.

At 10 o'clock the convention was called to order and devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Kate W. Barrett. The report of the executive committee was then submitted which was followed by the reading of the report of the committee on credentials.

The election of officers followed, which resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. Howard M. Hoge; vice president at large, Mrs. R. H Jones; honorary vice president, Mrs. Eliza J. Pleasants; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lillian Sheppard; recording secretary, Mrs. F. T. Parrott; treasurer, Mrs. E. B. Clement.

After noon-tide prayer the convention adjourned till 2 o'clock this evening. The following was the programme for the afternoon session of the Y conference:

2:00 — Devotional exercises — Rev. Edgar Carpenter.

Hymn.

Reading crusade Psalm in concert, followed by sentence prayers.

Roll call of local Y unions, responded to by local motto.

Music.

Two-minute talks by local Y presidents or representatives.

Greeting from State President.

Music.

Life sketches of prominent workers.

Question box.

The following will be the programme for tonight's session.

8:00. — Devotional exercises — Rev. Dr. Fisher.

Grand Gold Medal Contest, interspersed with solos by Mrs. M. W. O'Brien, Dr. Outcalt, Mr. Harris Franklin, Mr. Richard Wirt, Miss Lucy Graves add Mrs. Wm. Wools.

Presentation of banners.

Sent on to Grand Jury.

William Chiakalos was brought before the Police Court again this morning on the charge of stealing $300 from Mantis Bros., fruit dealers, several weeks ago. He was arrested at the time the money was missing, but in the absence of any positive evidence against the suspect, he was dismissed with the understanding that should there be developments to warrant such a procedure he would be rearrested. Temple Howser was taken into custody about a week ago charged with stealing $62 from Mantis Bros., and he was sent on to the grand jury. Howser made a statement of such a nature that it was deemed necessary to rearrest Chiakalos, who, Howser alleged, was a party to other robberies that had occurred at Mantis Bros., store. The suspect was in Washington at the time and officers who were sent to that city brought him here where he was locked up. When the case was called next day it was continued until this morning. The evidence of Howser was to the effect that Chiakalos was a party to two robberies at Mantis Bros.' store, including that in which $300 was stolen. Justice Caton sent the prisoner on to the grand jury. Chiakalos was represented by Mr. L. P. Harlow, and Mr. L. H. Machen, at the instance of Mantis Bros., appeared as prosecuting attorney.

Southern Railway Machinists.

Extreme reticence is being maintained by the officials of the Southern Railway Company in reference to the breaking off of negotiations with the machinists in the matter of a new wage scale. It is understood that conferences between the officials and machinists of the road were abruptly terminated about a week ago by the Southern Railway Company refusing to accept the wage scale tendered by the machinists as their ultimatum. It is said that all that is delaying a strike is the action of the machinists in submitting their grievance to the international Association. If that body decides that the ultimatum offered by the machinists contains nothing but reasonable demands, it is predicted that the machinists from all the shops of the Southern Railway willwalk out. It is predicted that a strike among the machinists would involve other employes of the road.

The Killing of Mr. Murphy.

In an effort to secure all the facts in connection with the death of Hugh S. Murphy, the engineer of the Southern Railway who was scalded to death beneath his overturned engine about two weeks ago at Sixth street and Maryland avenue southwest, Washington, Commissioner Macfarland has directed Coroner Nevitt to forwaid to him the testimony brought out at the inquest held the day after the tragedy. Mr. Charles Bendheim, the attorney representing the engineers' association, said yesterday that he knows a number of eye witnesses to the accident who saw the police drive away some members of the association who were at work trying to release their brother workman from beneath the engine.

Personal.

Miss Alice M. Graham, daughter of Mr. Robert M. Graham, has been notified that her drawing, "The Weaker Sex," was awarded the first prize at Fredericksburg; also that her charcoal study from life took the first prize.

Among the weddings announced to take place next month is that of Mr. Lewis Cheeseman and Miss Janet Fawcett.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Beach and family have returned to Washington after spending the heated term at their summer home at Oatlands, Loudoun county.

Dr. T. M. Jones who has been quite sick is improving.

Mrs. E. J. Saunders who has been visiting her son, Mr. Mason Saunders, on Prince street, has returned to her home in Orange county.

Mrs. S. R. Johnston, of East Orange, N. J., is the guest of Mrs. T. W. Robinson on Washington street.

Miss Mary V. Dollman, of this city, and Mr. Peter S. Healy, of Charleston, W. Va., were quietly married last Saturday at St. Joseph's Church, Clifton Forge.

Mrs. R. L Witt and daughters, Misses Kate and Louise, who have been visiting in the city, returned today to their home in Alexandria.—[Charlottesville Progress.

Miss Lilian Fowler, who has been visiting Miss Bessie Russell, on south Fairfax street, has returned to her home in Charles Town, W. Va.

Mrs. W. R. Purvis and her sister, Miss Margaret McG. Ashby, have returned from Massanetta Springs, where they spent the summer.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A white man (an old offender), arrested by Officer Beach for being drunk in the street, was sent to jail for 60 days.

A white man, arrested by Officer Bettis charged with being drunk, was dismissed with an admonition.

Wesley Carter, colored, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, had his case dismissed.

Alice Galloway, colored, arrested by Officer Jones charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

William Chiakalos, charged with stealing $300 from Mantis Bros., was sent on to the grand jury.

Died from Injuries.

About 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning Rosario Matolis, 25 years old, of 3218 K street, northwest Washington, and Tony Columbus, 30 years old, of the same address, were severely injured as the result of blasting on the Virginia shore of the Aqueduct bridge. After having his right leg amputated Matolis died at the Georgetown Hospital at 9 o'clock this morning. Columbus is reported to be in a serious condition.

The High School.

The Episcopal High School reopened today after the summer recess with a full attendance, over one-hundred and twenty boys being present, and this promises to be one of the most successful years in the school's history.

Kindergarten.

The fall meeting of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten board was held last evening. It is expected that suitable rooms will soon be secured and a kindergartner will be found to fill Miss Fawcett's place.

Torture By Savages.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the Kidneys," says W. M. Sherman of Cushing, Me., "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Blood disorders and Malaria; and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggist. Price 50c.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Alexandrians are wiseacres, allright, particularly where bargains are concerned. They appreciated those 39c challies for 18c sold by Lansburgh Bros. in Washington to such an extent that the entire lot was sold in one day. This week they offer 100 pieces 44 inch all wool double warp Storm Serge in navy, marine, myrtle, brown, red, &c. Worth 69c, for yard 50c.

Hugo Herfurth, jr., while eating his breakfast this morning accidentally swallowed three false teeth with the plate to which they were attached. They were lodged in his throat, and the young man was taken to Washington where a surgeon removed them by making an incision in his throat.

A pistol shot was heard at 2:05 o'clock yesterday morning on north St. Asaph street. It was said that an outcry followed the discharge of the pistol. The police were notified yesterday and they are endeavoring to ascertain who discharged the weapon.

A report was in circulation on the streets last night that a man who had stolen a box containing money from an electric car in this city some weeks ago had been arrested and the box recovered, but the report turned out to be incorrect.

A called meeting of the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter U. D. C. will be held tomorrow night at the Confederate Veterans' hall at 7:30 o'clock to transact business of importance.

Joseph Cox, colored, had three of his fingers cut off by a saw at the shipyard yesterday. He was employed in the building where electric appliances are manufactured.

Mr. Samuel H. Lunt will sell at public auction tomorrow at 10 o'clock a. m. the household and kitchen furniture in the residence No. 120 south Lee street.

The three-masted schooner Noronbecca is being loaded with railroad ties at the shipyard. She will convey them to Boston.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Robert A. Wallace and Ida V. Underwood, both of Alexandria.

A large excursion party came here today from Richmond and took the electric cars for Mount Vernon.

Fried Clams 30 cents a dozen. Oysters fried, stewed or raw. Dining room open on Sunday during oyster season. C. H. Zimman, Market Space. feb 26tf

When two strong men come to blows, even if they are well matched, it is not a pleasing sigh, but if the man who gets the worst of it will use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, he will look better and feel better in short order. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Good for everything a salve is used for, including piles. Sold by W. F. Creighton Co., 401 King street.

Now is your chance to get Lee Coal. Barge Wissahicken with 900 tons is now unloading clean coal right from the mines. Order your coal while unloading.

Railroad Accident.

Springfield, Ills., Sept 26—Three men were killed and 38 injured in a collision on the Wabash railroad today between an eastbound passenger train and a westbound freight. The accident happened at Catlin, a siding near Danville. The train was running 70 miles an hour, when it rounded a curve and dashed through an open switch into a cut of freight cars.

Peru, Ind., Sept. 26.—James Sullivan superintendent of the Peru division of the Wabash headquarters here has just received a message from Danville, Ills., stating that every member of the train crew was killed and cremated. The lists of the occupants of the berths in the sleepers are lost, consequently the identification of bodies is difficult.

The New Jersey Election.

Newark, N J., Sept. 26 —The regulars swept Newark and Essex county in yesterday's primary election. The adherents of Senator Colby (new idea) will have about 150 out of the 494 delegates Congressman Parker will be nominated and the regulars will be in a position to turn down Congresman Wiley if they so desire. The regulars will also control the city convention.

Lungs Shattered.

Chauncey Miller, an employe of the machine shop of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway at Huntington, W. Va., is dying at the Huntington Hospital from one of the oddest accidents on record. Miller was working with a section of small hose filled with compressed air, the pressure being 90 pounds to the square inch. A small leak in the hose occurred and Miller took the hose in his teeth in an attempt to make repair. The hose suddenly burst and the compressed air went down his throat with such force that his lungs, and, physicians believe, his entire stomach was shattered. He was taken to the hospital unconscious from loss of blood and is now dying.

Booker Washington's Advice.

Booker Washington, the negro educator discussing the recent disorder in Atlanta says: I would strongly urge that the best white people and the best colored people come together in council and use their united efforts to stop the present disorder. I would especially urge the colored people in Atlanta and elsewhere to exercise self-control, and not make the fatal mistake of attempting to retaliate, but to rely upon the efforts of the proper authorities to bring order and security out of confusion. If they do this, they will have the sympathy of good people the world over.

COURT OF APPEALS.

In the Court of Appeals at Staunton yesterday the case of Sullivan vs. Gunn was partly heard and submitted.

The case of Lane Brothers Company vs. Seakford was argued and submitted.

One case is left—Wayt vs. Glasgow—which is a contest over the position of police justice for Staunton.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Advices were received at Bristol, Tenn., today of the capture of Muncy Talley, at Frier, Grayson county, Va. Talley is the young man who a month ago stabbed Scott Howing to the heart, here, killing him instantly.

Coroner Shrady, in New York today, ordered the release of George Capanake and John Drandrakes, the Greek candy merchants, taken into custody yesterday because they had been heard to make threats against Jack Mano, believed to be the victim of the murder by the finding of a dismembered body on Sunday in an excavation at Thirty Sixth street and Eleventh avenue.

Figures just announced at the office of the Interstate Commerce Commission show that, since January first, there have been collected $283,075 in fines from railroads found guilty of granting rebates.

Rum-Fed Cows.

It is quite likely that Rev. Silas C. Swallow, of Pennsylvania, will be called to Maine, to aid in the crusade now being waged against unrighteous young men who are feeding cows Jamaica rum and selling the resultant, milk punch, to a thirsty people. So great has been the demand for the milk from these beautiful cows that the whole temperance movement in the commonwealth is threatened. At Biddeford, Aunt Susan Polk, who was wont to refresh herself while addressing the W. C. T. U., accidentally got hold of a bottle of this sin-charged milk and scandalized the sisters by her fervid appeals for more distilleries. Three clergymen stopped at a diary counter and lingered so long drinking the fluid that they had to be dragged away by force, crying in a heartbroken way against interference with personal rights. A night or two ago, at a church festival, the ice cream made from alcoholic milk proved so seductive for Miss Prude Forbee, the oldest soprano singer in Maine, that she hugged the pastor. The vile stuff is rolling over Maine in a flood, and unless something is done soon the whole people will be morally and physically saturated in rum.

Jumped in Front of Locomotive.

"Tell my people in Danville I will meet them in heaven."

With these words Charles R Adams, a well-dressed tobacconist of the Virginia city, jumped in front of a rapidly moving engine in the Spencer, N. C. yards yesterday morning and ended his life instantly.

Adams was a passenger on a northbound train reaching Spencer yesterday morning. He talked with parties around the depot, saying he did not want to live, and sent word to relatives in Danville that he would never see them again. Later he told trainmen in the yards at Spencer that he wished to die, and to a call boy stated that he would end his life by jumping under an engine. He was seen to make one attempt, but the locomotive stopped before it struck him. Later he secured an advantageous spot and threw himself bodily in front of a locomotive and died instantly. His body and lower limbs were frightfully mangled and his right leg cut off. He never spoke after being struck.

With the October number of the American Magazine, which has been received from the Phillips Publishing Co., New York, a new editorial management begins its work. The magazine gives promise of being remarkable in importance and interest, articles and stories in this its first number lifting it at once to a place of distinction. One of these is William Allen White's paper on "The Partnership of Society." Another is Mr. Dooley's article on "The Power of the Press." Contributions by Lincoln Steffens and Samuel Hopkins Adams are most readable. A serial and six short stories give excellent fiction.

JEWELRY.

Had Any Jewelry Accidents

While enjoying your vacation? If you had, do not throw the pieces away. What you may believe is impossible to fix, we are most likely able to repair and return to you looking like new.

We have just fixed up a broken brooch pin that came to us in an awful state. Now it looks as though nothing ever happened to it.

It might be well to have your travelling alarm clock and your watch cleaned. A great deal of sand and dust must have crept into them. Matter of this kind will eventually damage the works considerably. But if you have the cleaning done now you will not only prevent serious accidents, but will have the time-pieces in perfect repair for at least a year to come, and we guarantee our repairs for one year.

If you did not break your watch chain it certainly must show the wear and tear it was subjected to during the summer. Let us fix it up and replate it. Our charge is fair. Or if you would rather add a little to the repair charge and get a new chain purchase the guaranteed 2-K Gold Chain. The chain is guaranteed not to break in natural wear in twenty years.

Tired, Nervous Mothers

Make Unhappy Homes—Their Condition Irritates Both Husband and Children—How Thousands of Mothers Have Been Saved From Nervous Prostration and Made Strong and Well.

Mrs. Chester Curry

Mrs. Chas. F. Brown

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysterics, is unfit to care for children; it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The trouble between children and their mothers too often is due to the fact that the mother has some female weakness, and she is entirely unfit to bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves; it is impossible for her to do anything calmly.

The ills of women act like a firebrand upon the nerves, consequently nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues," sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability? Are your spirits easily affected, so that one minute you laugh, and the next minute you feel like crying?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threatening to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; pain in the abdominal region, and between the shoulders; bearing-down pains; nervous dyspepsia and almost continually cross and snappy?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous prostration than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women can testify to this fact.

Mrs. Chester Curry, Leader of the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra, 42 Saratoga Street, East Boston, Mass., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For eight years I was troubled with extreme nervousness and hysteria, brought on by irregularities. I could neither enjoy life nor sleep nights; I was very irritable, nervous and despondent.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and proved to be the only remedy that helped me. I have daily improved in health until I am now strong and well, and all nervousness has disappeared."

Mrs. Charles F. Brown, Vice-President of the Mothers' Club, 21 Cedar Terrace, Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I dragged through nine years of miserable existence, worn out with pain and nervousness, until it seemed as though I should fly. I then noticed a statement of a woman troubled as I was, and the wonderful results she derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I decided to try it. I did so, and at the end of three months I was a different woman. My nervousness was all gone, I was no longer irritable, and my husband fell in love with me all over again."

Women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine that holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of female ills, and take no substitute.

Free Advice to Women.

Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write to her for advice. Mrs. Pinkham's vast experience with female troubles enables her to advise you wisely, and she will charge you nothing for her advice.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

Symptoms.

A physician was talking about his patient's symptoms.

"Young, strong people don't give me enough symptoms when they are ill," he said, "but the middle aged and the aged give me too many. Thinking about their health all the time, studying their condition all the time, the aged and the middle aged discover a symptom in every muscle, in every organ, in every limb. Thus they confuse me.

"The average sufferer of fifty or so will pour upon my head a deluge of symptoms like this:

"'Well, doctor, I'm miserable all over, feverish one minute, freezing the next. I've a gnawing pain in my hip and side and back and an all gone sensation in the stomach, with a shooting, neuralgic headache over the left eye. I have a queer taste in my mouth, a dizziness when I stoop over and a dull ache up and down the right side, along with a kind of numbness. I cough a lot, my throat's sore, and I've the earache. Appetite's fair, but not what it should be. I have a feeling of lassitude, and I'm very weak. These are only a few of my main symptoms. To proceed, etc.'"—Exchange.

An Unruffled Spirit.

A contented spirit was Mrs. Snow's, so contended that at times her neighbors found it trying and took an unrighteous satisfaction in presenting any small thorns which might prick through her comfort.

"No, my Angie hasn't the measles," said Mrs. Snow one day. "Well, perhaps it seems strange she should escape the epidemic, but my children are unusually fortunate always in those respects. Of course I take the best of care of them, and, then, they inherit a tendency to throw off any germs. I anticipate no illness with Angie."

In spite of this the redoubtable Angie came down with measles a week later, and the inquiring friend again approached Mrs. Snow.

"Yes, dear Angie has the measles at last," said the contented mother. "Now, most of the other children are well, and as the doctor has plenty of time to attend to her it really seemed an opportunity for Angie. I don't suppose there ever was a child on whom they came out more beautifully than on Angie. I tell the doctor I think he may well be proud of his little patient."—Youth's Companion.

The Atmosphere.

Even if it were possible for man to live without breathing air he could not exist on the earth if it were without an atmosphere. Plants derive carbon, the most important element of their food, from the air, and without plants there could be no food for animals and therefore no human beings. Water also comes from the atmosphere, but if there were no water there could be neither plants nor animals. If food and water could be supplied in some other way the world would still be unhabitable by plants and animals owing to the severity of the cold. Without an atmosphere there would be no winds and consequently no waves or ocean currents. The sea—if we may suppose one to have been supplied by some unknown cause—would be a stagnant pool, uninhabitable by seaweed or fish.

American Buyer In London.

"My American accent came near to taxing me just $430 on my last trip to London," remarked a clubman. "When I tried to buy a certain bulldog pup there the kennel man priced it at $500, as he had me sized up as an American and, in his regard, an easy mark. I made a deal with a cabby at the hotel stand, who went around and bought the same pup for me at $60, a very fair price, as the dog will never be a show winner. I gave a $10 tip to the cabman, so I made $430 by employing an agent who called his hansom an 'ansom and his horse an 'orse."—New York Sun.

Jackdaw and Magpie.

In England the daw is hardly ever mentioned but as Jack, yet daw and not jackdaw is the proper name of the species. It is suggested that the pie owes the "mag" to some corruption of Margaret or Meg. To mag is to chatter, but whether the verb was derived from the name or the name from the verb is a question. It is more than probable that the Jim Crow of America (the old name for a negro boy) was brought across from England in the days when a crow was Jim, as a swallow was Dick.—London Standard.

Egg and Bottle.

Take a boiled egg, remove the shell, have a bottle with a large neck, add a piece of paper to the neck and light it. When in blaze put the egg on it, point down, and the heat will pull the egg with great force inside. Now put again a blazed paper in the bottle and manage to have the egg in the neck point up, and the heat will push out the egg with an explosion.

Perpetual.

"You always appear to be worried about your housekeeping," remarked the sympathetic friend.

"But really," replied the housekeeper, "there are only two occasions when I am really worried. One is when I haven't a servant and the other is when I have."

A Scientific Wonder.

The cures that stand to its credit make Bucklen's Arnica Salve a scientific wonder. It cured E. R. Mulford, lecturer for the Patrons of Husbandry, Waynesboro, Pa., of a distressing case of Piles. It heals the worst Burns, Sores, Boils, Ulcers, Cuts, Wounds, Chilblains and Salt Rheum. Only 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Good for the cough, removes the cold, the cause of the cough. That's the work of Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the original laxative cough syrup. Contains no opiates. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.
